

June 28, 2018

Whiteriver, AZ

The White Mountain Apache Housing Authority (WMAHA) announces the use of grant funding from The Home Depot Housing Foundation (THDF) and Wells Fargo Housing Foundation, through the Housing Assistance Council's (HAC's) Affordable Housing for Rural Veterans (AHRV) Initiative. Along with WMAHA funds, grant funds received from The Home Depot Foundation, leveraged with support from Wells Fargo Housing Foundation, funded the rehabilitation of Army veteran Mr. Jack Cosen's home.

About The Home Depot Foundation

The Home Depot Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of U.S. military veterans through financial and volunteer resources to help nonprofit organizations. The Foundation has committed $198 million to these efforts since 2011, which has assisted in the transformation of more than 33,000 veteran homes and facilities. Through Team Depot, The Home Depot's associate-led volunteer force, thousands of associates dedicate their time and talents to these efforts in the communities where they live and work. To learn more and see Team Depot in action, visit www.homedepot.com/teamdepot.

About the Wells Fargo Housing Foundation

Wells Fargo Housing Foundation is community leader dedicated to creating affordable and sustainable housing and investing in neighborhood revitalization efforts to build stronger communities. Since its inception in 1993, the Wells Fargo Housing Foundation has invested more than $190 million, along with mobilizing 4.7 million team member volunteer hours, to build and rehabilitate 7,100 homes and counting. To learn more, visit <https://www.wellsfargo.com/about/corporate-responsibility/community-giving/housing-foundation/>

About the Housing Assistance Council

The Home Depot Foundation is a major supporter of HAC's Veterans Initiative. Thanks to The Home Depot Foundation, HAC provides grants, training, research, loans, and other assistance to rural nonprofits that serve veterans. Founded in 1971 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., HAC is a national nonprofit dedicated to helping local rural organizations build affordable homes by providing below-market financing, technical assistance, training, research, and information services. To learn more, visit <http://www.ruralhome.org/veterans>

